Exidy Introduces a New VENTURE™ in Video Games

You anxiously stand at the doorway of discovery, trembling with excitement, ready to pounce on the venture of the unknown. Behind every door is the treasure you've been waiting for . . . VENTURE™, the powerful, new, profit-maker from Exidy.

Are you ready for a VENTURE™?

VENTURE™ is a one or two player, color video game, full of surprising treasures. VENTURE™ is a series of games within the game.

VENTURE™ is played in a dark dungeon of multi-levels. The player forges through one level of rooms at a time, displayed on the screen as a floor plan. Armed with bow and arrow, the player learns to avoid confrontation with the wandering green Hallmonsters™ by skillfully entering the sanctity of a room.

Once inside a room, the chamber's image grows to full screen size, creating a game within a game. Every room has a treasure guarded by a threatening creature or hazardous condition. The player must retrieve the treasure, avoiding threats and obstacles. Points are awarded for taking the treasure out of the chamber and for destroying chamber creatures. When the player leaves a chamber, the screen image then returns to the original floor plan. Whenever a treasure is safely withdrawn, the player no longer has access to that room. The player must win all the treasures of one level before descending to another level.

Various Ventures within VENTURE™

Each room is a new and completely different challenge. For example, one room has a pot of gold of high point value, guarded by goblins. Another has a damsel in distress, surrounded by dangerous spiders. Another room has hazardous moving walls with the power to crush the player in his attempt to capture a diamond. With 50 different treasures to retrieve, VENTURE™ features even more surprises . . . the more you venture, the greater the challenge and the higher the reward!

Afrer strategically collecting all the treasures on one level, the player ventures further into the depths of the dank and threatening dungeon. Each level becomes increasingly more difficult. Upon successful passage through all levels of the dungeon, the player "wraps" to level one, facing the same creatures . . . but watch out! The chamber creatures and Hallmonsters™ are more aggressive and cunning.
